A Day at the Bookstore

Suzu is a university student in Osaka. She studies English. She loves to read, and she often visits the city library. Last Saturday, a new bookstore opened near her apartment, so she went there at ten o'clock in the morning. It was big and beautiful. She looked at many kinds of books for two hours.

At twelve o'clock, Suzu bought three books and one magazine. "What's on the second floor?" she thought. When Suzu went to the second floor of the bookstore, she saw a café. There were many things on the menu at the café. The cakes and sandwiches looked nice, but she just bought a cup of tea. She sat down and started reading her new magazine.

At two o'clock, Suzu looked around. There were many people in the café, and they were eating and drinking. She thought, "It's a little noisy* now." So, she went home. Suzu enjoyed her day at the bookstore.
