第 16 問 次は、ニュージーランドのユニークな鳥たちについての説明文です。英文を読んで、以下の問いに答えなさい。Read essay and answer the questions.

New Zealand is famous for its beautiful nature and unique birds. What is so unique about birds in New Zealand? They can't fly! *For millions of years, kiwis and other birds *ruled New Zealand. These birds are an important and interesting part of the natural history of New Zealand.

New Zealand is full of *green forests. The forests were a perfect home for the birds. *Plenty of food was on or near the ground. They didn't need to fly to the top of a tree to get fruits and *insects. In addition, the birds didn't have *natural enemies so they didn't need to fly from *danger.

As a result, flightless birds *evolved. The kiwi is one of these flightless birds. It is about the size of a chicken. But its eggs are very large. The kakapo is a kind of *parrot but it is very big and heavy. It also can't fly. The moa was a giant bird and it did not have wings at all.

Sadly, these unique birds are either disappearing or *extinct. The moa is now extinct and the kiwi and the kakapo are *endangered. People brought cats, dogs, and other animals to New Zealand. For these animals, the large and *flightless birds were easy to catch.

The people of New Zealand are working hard to save the kiwi and other birds from *extinction. For example, only 51 kakapo *existed in 1955. But now the number of kakapo is over 100. New Zealanders are trying hard to *maintain this special and wonderful land of ().
